

Donald ARCHBOLD. - 1955
DUBBO HIGH SCHOOL.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
1. Editorial	3
2. Foreword	5
3. Suggestions for Our Next Edition	7
* 4. The Business Principles Syllabus—Need for Revision.—R. W. Short, Albury High School	8
5. Suggestions for Revision of Business Principles Syllabus.—C. Cook, Plattsburg Central School	10
6. A Suggested Syllabus for Business Principles and Practice.—B. M. Chapman, Katoomba High School	13
7. Trial Balances Without Tribulations.—Barry Owens, Cook's Hill I.H.S.	17
8. The Balance Sheet Approach to Book-keeping.—J. J. Sheehan, Mullumbimby High School	19
9. Pupil Activity in Commercial Subjects.—A. H. Harris, Homebush Boys' High School	25
10. Why Not Social Studies?—J. B. Hooke, Junee Intermediate H.S.	27
11. Bank Education Service.—N. G. Bice, State Secretary	28
12. Some Thoughts on Programme Planning for the New Syllabus.—G. W. Muir, Sydney Teachers' College	30
13. Suggestions on the Teaching of Geography and Treatment of the New Syllabus (Summer School, January, 1955).—Compiled by A. Knight, Casino High School	34
14. Current and Local Geography.—F. E. Taylor, Richmond High School	40
15. A Note on the Sample Area Approach to the Study of Climate.—M. I. Logan, Armidale High School	42
16. Mapping.—A. L. Kemp, Tamworth High School	44
17. The Use of the Epidiascope in Geography.—J. H. Pratt, Manly High School	46
18. The Idea of Interdependence.—H. Treverrow, Dubbo High School	47
* 19. The Approach to Economics.—D. Archbold, Dubbo High School	49